

AN IMPARTIAL MAN.

One of the most important offices in the county is that of Assessor. A man to fill that office competently must be possessed of sound judgment, honest, and above all, impartial. The favors that can be shown by an Assessor to a person or a corporation are many and it very frequently happens that men of influence are thus favored, that the person showing them will be kept in office for many years. As an impartial man we commend to the voters of this county, W. H. McInnis, the Republican nominee for Assessor. We can vouch for his honesty and we are certain that he will have no favorites among the taxpayers. That is the kind of a man we want for Assessor, and the voters should not hesitate to elect him.

The Bank of California.

At the twenty-second annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of California, held Tuesday, the reports show that during the past year the bank has handled $593,319,599, or an average of $49,859,953 per month. From the net earnings four quarterly dividends of $75,000 were paid, and $55,085 was added to the profit and loss account. The statement of the bank's condition on the 1st of October exhibited total resources of $13,161,837 30, which is an increase of $1,199,828 40. Only one change has been made in the Board of Directors. In the place of Wm. Sharon, deceased, F. G. Newlands has been chosen.

If there is anything that should remain untarnished, it is the judicial robe. While a man is holding the scales of justice, deciding the differences of his fellow men, he should keep himself free from political and all other bias. He should do nothing that might give the semblance of partisanship, so long as he remains in the position in which he is called upon to draw the line of right between citizens of all parties, and of every grade, from the lowest criminal to the millionaire.

Judge Boardman has permitted himself to be announced as the leading advocate of the Republican party in this county during the present campaign. In doing so he is violating judicial ethics, and is trailing in the dust a most honored office. Judicial honor and honesty demand that the bench and politics should be kept as far apart as is practical. It is and will be a source of regret, a stain upon the judiciary of this county for Judge Boardman to further assume the role of a pot-house politician to do the bidding of a political master. If he desires to play his part as a political mountebank, he should at once resign and thus save the people from the disgrace of witnessing the lowering of the judicial standard.

This campaign is a very quiet one. The people seem to be more interested in rustling grub than in bothering about politics. The State will go Republican, but Republicans should not forget to work and vote.

Let a Nevada man represent Nevada in the Senate. What good will either Stewart or Fair do for Nevada? Let the people elect a home man and have their interests protected and cared for.

Several of the Democratic candidates have started on a "still hunt" through the southern part of the county. The Republican candidates will start out on the war-path in a day or two.

The body of J. D. Farmer was found in Salt Lake Tuesday. He was drowned three years ago last August. The features were recognizable. The body was completely pickled.

Only a few more days remain in which to get registered. If you are not registered see that your name is on the list immediately, that is if you want to vote.

The Government receipts, so far this month, amount to $14,547,000, and the expenditures during the same period to $8,307,000, showing an excess of $6,240,000.

The new $1 silver notes which have been placed in circulation are among the handsomest bills issued by the United States.

For the Good of the Order.

Virginia Chronicle Oct. 14.

This morning H. M. Yerington and Wm. M. Stewart had a conference together at the Y. & T. office in Carson.

STANFORD & CO'S CANDIDATE.

The Virginia Chronicle tells the truth in the following:

William M. Stewart is a candidate for one of Nevada's seats in the United States Senate. He has been going about the State for some months advertising this fact. He has made a good many speeches, written a pamphlet or two and caused numerous newspaper articles to be published—all urging the election of Mr. Stewart to the Senate.

A careful perusal of these efforts fails to disclose more than one reason why the people of Nevada should return Mr. Stewart to the Senate. This solitary reason is that Mr. Stewart wants the office.

On the other hand there are several excellent reasons why the ambition of this visitor from San Francisco should not be gratified. He is not a Nevada man. It is true that he has built a house at Carson—to which sham home he points with pride. To give an air of reality to this bit of humbug he has brought his family to live in the little political temple which he has erected in the interest of his Senatorial longings. The people of Carson, and of Nevada, welcome the return of Mr. Stewart's family—and the welcome is all the warmer because of the length of their absence. It is twenty years since Mr. Stewart took them away from the sagebrush, and he kept them away without a break until last Spring. He has a law library in Carson, too. Has anybody heard of his practicing law there? The office, like the house, is a humbug—one of the stage settings in the comedy which the Central Pacific's "first old man" is playing.

Mr. Stewart calls himself a Republican candidate. His claim is as true as the house and office are genuine. Mr. Stewart is the candidate of the Central Pacific Railroad Company. When ostensibly serving Nevada in the Senate chamber, he betrays this people into the hands of that corporation, which has robbed them ever since. Castle Stewart is a big building, but every stone in it is an indictment of William M. Stewart. He was useful to the Central Pacific. They recall that fact and want him in the Senate again—not out of gratitude, but because there are other axes to grind, and Stewart understands the business. This monopoly, which has made its president King of California, politically as well as industrially, has the nerve to export William M. Stewart over here with his carpet-bag and to ask the people of Nevada to send him back to the seat in which he sat when he betrayed them. The Central Pacific, which has eaten Nevada's flesh and the people of Nevada to vote to give them Stewart's help in the agreeable work of picking the State's bones. And Stewart comes willingly. He comes, grip-sack in hand, clothed in the rags of his character, and foul with the stains of his record. Standing out blinking in the sunlight, he invites his former constituents to look at, admire and vote for him.

It is a shameful spectacle, this old man, coming back with dulled faculties, but undiminished appetite for office and gain, and offering himself for the suffrages of a State whose misfortunes are largely due to the corporate bandit of which he was the useful instrument, and whose lackey he still is.

No wonder that self-respecting Republicans revolt against the dose which the Central Pacific and its allies have prepared for them. Stewart is a pill which no gilding can save from being nauseous.

Is it possible that Nevada will suffer the disgrace of this man's return to the Senate? Can it be that the people who are daily plundered of their substance by the Central Pacific and its corporate confederates will permit them to crown this candidate down their sore throats? There is no disguise about the method, that are to be employed to force the patient to take the Stewart bolus. Railroad money and railroad bulldozing are the means relied on. Both have already been used openly at the primary contests of the Republican party, and Stewart has looked on, approved, and lent a hand when necessary. No doubt he deems turn about fair play. He did dirty work for the railroads in the Senate, and, in his view, it is but natural and proper that the railroads should return the compliment. The business has all been arranged at the corner of Fourth and Townsend streets. Stewart is wanted to help Stanford in the Senate, where the latter is acting openly as the attorney of his own interests.

What will the Republicans of Nevada do? Are they prepared to kitch themselves to the Central Pacific's political car and pull for Stewart? Are they ready to give their votes for a further looting of the State? Are they willing to help elect a man to the United States Senate merely because Stanford & Co. want to use him there, and because he is eager to be used?

The candidacy of this man Stewart is at once an insult and a challenge to the manhood of the Republicans of Nevada.

Stanford's Value.

The Virginia Chronicle says: The Central Pacific's first mortgage bonds become due in 1890. The company wants to postpone pay day indefinitely. A bill has already been introduced proposing that the Government shall accept, instead of payment, new bonds running for eighty years, and bearing two per cent. interest. Friends are wanted in Congress to push through this scheme. Consequently the Central Pacific is running Sargent for the Senate in California and Stewart in Nevada. The monopoly would like to have a solid band of faithful henchmen in the Senate from the Pacific Coast, for Stanford to lead in the fight to starve off the discharge of its just debt to the Government. The people of Nevada, against whom the road has ever discriminated, are asked to give their assistance to this job. The Republican party of this State has packed a good many heavy burdens for the corporations, but when it is requested to take Stanford's political valise for a Senatorial candidate, it ought in decency to draw the line and declare that the limit of subservience and shame has been passed. The party owes the State this much.

J. W. Freeman, of Eureka county, was in town yesterday.

INDEPENDENT DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The members of the Reno Independent Reform Club publish the following as their Declaration and Platform of Political Principles:

[Platform of 1874.]

That the National Republican and Democratic parties are controlled for corrupt purposes, and in the interests of corporations, monopolies and the money power of the country. And particularly within the State of Nevada these parties controlled in the interests of monopolies, foreign corporations, and persons who are non-residents of the State, for corrupt purposes, and to the extension of the right of the individual citizen.

That the present and future interests of the United States demand political action, independent of the Democratic and Republican parties; and in particular does the interests of the people of the State of Nevada require of us and of all good citizens of the State the sacrifice of former party ties and affiliations and a union of effort for the protection and preservation of the rights of the individual citizen.

That in the State of Nevada good and true men, bona fide citizens thereof, should be elected to office, and those only, who are fully identified with our industries and who have sympathies and interests in common with the people of our State.

That the monopolies and moneyed corporations, doing business within the State of Nevada have, from the earliest history of our State and people, used money, power and interested individual effort to break down financially and to drive from business and remunerative industries, individual citizens who came in competition with them, and continue so to do, to the great detriment and injury of the people and State.

That the oppression of and discrimination against the people of the State of Nevada, by a foreign corporation styled "The Central Pacific Railroad Company of California," is of such a nature that no people having in any sense the spirit of our ancestors, will longer quietly submit thereto. That its oppressions and discrimination chiefly consisted in its refusal to ship and deliver directly at stations within our State merchandise purchased in Eastern markets by our merchants and citizens, and in compelling them to ship their goods and merchandise thus purchased to San Francisco or Sacramento, and pay large additional freight thereon; also in refusing to ship our products to Eastern markets, unless the shippers pay a bonus in extra freight money greater than the price of freight to and from San Francisco or Sacramento, by which discrimination and oppression our mining interests and other industries are dwarfed—our merchants compelled to remain retailers and our people impoverished, the general business of our State degraded, its development and prosperity retarded and capitalists and others deterred from constructing manufacturing and investing therein within our State. All of which is avowedly in the interests of San Francisco and the Central Pacific Railroad Company and for the purpose of keeping Nevada, its capital and people, together with our industries tributary thereto.

We make the above and foregoing charges against monopolies and moneyed corporations doing business within our State in a spirit begotten by the conviction that right and justice should be meted out to a down-trodden, outraged and enslaved people.

That all property within the State should be taxed at its true value, whether owned by corporations, foreign or domestic, residents or non-residents—and we deem it to be the duty of our legislators to pass, and we will require our representatives to aid in the passage of such laws as will insure to the people this result.

That we most emphatically condemn the disposition and practice of pandering to the wishes and demands of corporations, and the money power of the State, in the matter of taxing property. That we will not knowingly support for office a person whom we have reason to believe will evade official duty by shifting responsibility in any matter, and particularly in the matter of a just and equal taxation of all property within the State required by law to be taxed.

That we are in favor of invoking the whole power of the State, for a full and just enforcement of the revenue laws to the end—that the burdens heretofore chiefly sustained by individual citizens by taxing their property at its full and legitimate value, may be proportionately supported by taxing in the same manner all taxable property within the State, in the manner prescribed by law.

That we recognize in the advanced state of commerce, and the age in which we live, the absolute necessity of corporations and combinations of capital to maintain the established, and carry forward to completion the new, and ever increasing avenues that are required for the commerce of our country and the world, and it is not our intention or purpose to wage political warfare against corporations or capital as such, or to array labor against capital to the detriment of the interests of either; but the oppression of the individual citizen and the manifest disregard for individual rights by corporations, and the money power has also made it an absolute necessity that the people relieve themselves from oppression through political action, and the medium of just laws, defining and recognizing fully the rights and liberties of each.

That we mutually pledge ourselves and agree not to relinquish our efforts in and for the right, until justice is done.

Signed, (No. 19) Wm. Thompson, Now the regular Republican nominee for State Senator.

Resolved, That the Legislative nominees of this Convention are pledged to Ormsby county men and measures in all matters touching Ormsby county which may come before the session of the Legislature.—Ormsby County Republican Platform.

The Growth of California.

The way in which towns grow in the southern counties of California, says the San Francisco Post, is illustrated by the progress of Monrovia, the site of which four months ago was only a brush-covered tract on the foothills. At four months old the town contains sixty furnished residences, fifteen or twenty more in course of erection, a commodious hotel and two churches. Between 1880 and 1884 the vote of Los Angeles nearly doubled, and since 1884 the increase has been proportionately quite as great. It is calculated that since the Presidential election there has been a gain of 15,000 in the population of Los Angeles county. San Bernardino has kept pace with Los Angeles, and San Diego, which for a time lagged behind, is now going ahead as fast as any of them. North of the Tehachipa mountains there are at least two counties—Tulare and Fresno—in which the growth of population has been nearly as rapid as south of it. In 1880 Fresno had a population of less than 10,000, and today it has 20,000—an increase of 100 per cent.

"SNOW-SHOE THOMPSON."—One of the most remarkable mountaineers of our country was undoubtedly the man known far and wide in the Sierras as "Snow-Shoe Thompson," who, until the building of the railroad, used to cross on snow-shoes the trackless wilds of the high Sierras, in the dead of winter, carrying the overland mails strapped on his back. The achievements of this Norwegian-born hero fall little short of the incredible, but they seem to be abundantly vouched for by his old acquaintances. Dan De Quille, the well-known editor, who was one of these, has collected the leading facts of Thompson's life and achievements, to save the memory of them from passing away, and gives the results in an article of unusual interest in the Overland Monthly for October. As the author says, it is not likely that Thompson's rival in gallant feats as a snow-shoer will ever be found, and these facts are the more honorable, because they were performed simply, and as a matter of course, in the pursuit of a useful calling. Snow-shoe Thompson was no bravo, but a simple, temperate, kind and brave Norwegian, who for years, with great public spirit discharged, with positive enjoyment, a public service that required skill and courage and physical powers equal to those of an Arctic explorer. The lives he saved, of snowed up travelers, make perhaps the best known chapter in his history; but the whole of it—of which it would be impossible for us to give any adequate idea without quoting a large part of the article—is a story that ought to be read by everyone, and go on the world's record of gallant adventures.

SHEEP AND WOOL.—The Elko Independent says:

William Mitchell, of Huntington Valley, while in California recently, purchased fifty-three Spanish Merino bucks for the improvement of his flock. The sheep arrived yesterday and they are fine specimens of that popular breed. Mr. Mitchell left this morning with his purchase for the southern part of the county.

Mr. Mitchell has shipped to Boston 45,157 pounds of wool, the product of this season's clip from 6,955 sheep, being an average of within a small fraction of 6 1/2 pounds to the head, which is considered a very fair yield. The price of wool this season is better than it has been for several years past and wool growers are well satisfied with the result of this season's business, as 18 to 20 cents per pound for wool delivered on the cars here, together with the increase, pays a very fair per cent. on the capital invested in sheep.

Prosperity of the Nevada Bank

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Nevada Bank of San Francisco, took place Wednesday. The Board of Directors, consisting of James C. Flood, John W. Mackay, James L. Flood, George L. Brander and R. H. Folliis, were elected.

During last year the amount of exchange handled was $63,031,403. After paying all expenses and $525,000 in dividends, there was $185,628 carried to the profit and loss account. The net earnings for the previous year were reported at $504,325, out of which a dividend of ten per cent., or $500,000, was paid.

San Francisco Letter Delivery.

The reports of the letter-carrier business in California for the last fiscal year has been submitted to the Postmaster General. In San Francisco 101 carriers are employed. They delivered last year 10,683,170 mail letters, 1,515,114 postal cards, 5,221,546 local letters, 2,756,595 local postal cards, 88,870 registered letters, 6,442,130 newspapers, circulars, etc. During the year they collected 14,997,797 letters, 2,798,314 postal cards, and 2,114,310 newspapers. The total postage paid on local matter amounted to $70,498,972.

THE COMSTOCK LODE.

The Bulletin remarks:

It is not yet fully decided that the lower levels of the Comstock lode are to be abandoned. If some of the other companies will aid those interested in the Combination shaft in keeping the mines free from water, the order may yet be rescinded. Should it, however, be carried out, that action does not include the abandonment of the lode. It is understood that in the event of stopping work on the lower levels and allowing them to fill with water a thorough exploration will be made of the ground lying between the 3,100 and the 2,400 foot levels. In case nothing of value is found there, or on the working out of anything that may be found the water will be permitted to rise to the 2,400 foot level, and the ground between that and the surface will be subjected to a like examination. This work will require years and the labor of a great number of men for its accomplishment. No great bonanzas are looked for on these upper levels, but they are understood to contain plenty of low-grade ore which will pay for extraction as a milling proposition.

That portion of the public interest however remotely in mining and stock speculation on the Comstock has been taught to hope for valuable developments at great depths. That hope has inspired the continuance of costly and fruitless prospecting. Its abandonment will be the death-blow of speculation in those stocks, which have always been the main hold of operators. Nothing could ever startle the stockholder like a rumor of a development on the Comstock. The whole line would respond with ready sympathy. It was the easiest thing in the world to get up a whirlpool of excitement which would draw into its vortex persons of all classes, only to throw them out bruised and crippled on its subsidence. The confinement of work to the drudgery of getting out low-grade ore from the neglected upper levels, where nothing is to be expected but plodding operations on a small margin of profit, will strip the glamour from Comstock mining and leave it a cold business proposition. One hope is held out. There is said to be a project afoot to obtain Government assistance in sinking a shaft and testing the lode to a depth of 5,000 feet, with the view of determining the mooted question whether there is any attainable bottom to a true fissure lode or any point below which it ceases to be metal-bearing. It is a very weak hope. There are too many ifs in the way: If the Government would act; if the ledge should prove metaliferous; if the ore would pay for extraction at such depths, etc. Only the most sanguine and inordinate speculator can draw much comfort from a contemplation of these contingencies.

Two Hoggling Gimmies.

The Virginia Chronicle says: The other day two carloads of freight consigned to Nevada, came over the route from Pennsylvania. The freight was taken on to Sacramento. The rate from Pennsylvania to California's capital was 65 cents per 100 lbs. The rate from Sacramento back to Reno, for these same two carloads, was $1 07 1/2. The charge would have been the same had the goods been switched off at Reno. In other words, the Central Pacific when it carries freight for Nevada people charges 42 1/2 cents more per hundred for a haul of 200 miles than for a haul of 3,000 miles when the freight belongs to Californians. This is a representative instance of the manner in which the Central Pacific has always discriminated against Nevada.

William M. Stewart is the Central Pacific candidate for the Senate. It costs the Virginia & Truckee Railroad Company 60 cents to haul a carload of wood from Carson to this city. Its charge is $3 35. On every cord of wood brought to Virginia the Virginia & Truckee makes twice as much as the wood men, who buy the land and timber and pay for cutting. This extortion has helped to make mining immensely costly on the Comstock. It has discouraged prospecting enterprises and prevented new developments, here and in the whole field which the railroad drains. The people furnished the money with which the Virginia & Truckee was built, and its building drove out of existence the teaming industry, the stables, boarding houses and other establishments which the teaming system made necessary. The railroad has given us no new industries in return for those which it killed, as other railroads do. The freight business done now by the Virginia & Truckee would give employment to between four and five thousand men if the hauling were by wagons. And if the work were to be done by teams the money paid would remain here, and circulate among us, and make times lively for business men and everybody else. But the money paid to the railroad is never seen again. It goes out of the country to stay. The Virginia and Truckee is a Chinaman on wheels.

William M. Stewart is the Virginia and Truckee's candidate for the Senate. A Washington special says: It is stated on good authority that after filing his annual Treasury report, Secretary Manning will retire from the Cabinet permanently.

PARKER'S NEW MAP OF NEVADA.

—THIS NEW AND BEAUTIFUL—

MAP OF THE STATE.

Has Just Been Published, and is Now Ready for Sale.

It has been completed with great care in order to insure its being strictly correct, and furnishes a vast fund of valuable information regarding the topography of the State. There never has been a Map of the State prepared heretofore worthy of the name, and it is intended to fill a long-felt want on the part of citizens. It has been lithographed at large expense by the famous publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago, and does great credit to their well-known skill in the art. The Map is drawn on a scale of 12 miles to the inch, and shows all surveyed Townships up to date of issue, also all Mountain Ranges, Valleys, Rivers, Creeks, Brooks, Streams and Lakes; it also shows the correct position of all Indian and Military Reservations, and all Cities, Towns and Settlements; also all Railroads and the principal Wagon Roads. The County Boundaries are also depicted with absolute correctness, which is something that no other Map has even approximated to.

The Map is printed on the best of paper, and mounted with stick, top and bottom, with tape on edges and varnished; it is also printed on thin, strong paper, which folds up in stout covers for pocket form. The Counties are printed with different colors, making it altogether an ornament to any school house, office, saloon or private room, as well as valuable for instruction and reference.

The Map has been compiled by John W. Parker, the Chief Draftsman of the United States Surveyor-General's Office at Reno, who holds the copyright, and is the condensation of all information on file in that office, as well as the celebrated War Department Maps prepared by Lieutenant Wheeler; he has also had at his command other recent and reliable data on which to rely, and the Map is issued to the public in the firm belief that it is in every way authentic.

The Price of the Map is $5.00.

And copies will be sent to any address, postpaid, upon receipt of the money. Parties ordering will be careful to state which style is desired—mounted or pocket form.

Reno, Nevada.

REPUBLICAN PLAT-FORM.

The Republicans of Washoe county, in convention assembled, present the following declaration of principles and purposes, and pledge themselves and the nonpartisanship of this Convention to their faithful and earnest support and endorsement.

We denounce the attempt of the present administration to further restrict the coinage of silver and change the measure of standard values from gold and silver to gold alone, as an act of monstrous injustice to the mining interests of our country, and demand that a double standard be established of both gold and silver, and be maintained as the basis of our money system as established by the Constitution of the United States.
